

BASIC COMMANDS

- 1) ls -la (list all files and folders inside current directory)
- 2) ls -R (list files in sub-directories too)
- 3) pwd (Print Working Directory)
- 4) mkdir (make directory/folder)
- 5) cd (Change Directory)
- 6) cd .. (go to parent folders)
- 7) cd - (go to the 'home' directory)
- 8) history (search command history)
- 9) history | grep "sudo" (search your history for a specific command)
- 10) whoami (find out which account is currently logged in)
- 11) man "sudo" (manual for a specific command)
- 12) tlldr (like the man command, but with examples)
- 13) rm "documentname.txt" (remove file)
- 14) rm -r "foldername" (delete directory)
- 15) top (check system resources & running processes)
- 16) uname -a (get information on your operating system)
- 17) df -h (hard-drive information in human readable form)
- 18) free -m (system memory information)
- 19) lsblk (list of partitioned disks)
- 20) ping "www.example.com" (check to see if you can connect to the websites server)